

BUSHMAN®
Autumn Collection 2026

Autumn has its own unmistakable atmosphere – cooler mornings, the colours of nature, the scent of wood... And there are few places where this season holds such charm as in Scotland. It is precisely this atmosphere that has become the central theme of this year's BUSHMAN autumn collection. We drew inspiration from Scotland's untamed landscape and traditions, and have incorporated this into both our women's and men's ranges – from T-shirts, hoodies and jumpers to trousers and dresses...

Just as Scotland combines wild nature with enchanting city streets, the new collection is perfect for both. Alongside tried-and-tested warm fabrics such as flannel, we've also turned to cosy modal and other functional combinations that offer uncompromising comfort. The colour palette reflects the earthy tones in which nature is cloaked every autumn.

The BUSHMAN autumn collection thus naturally blends inspiration from the Scottish landscape with comfort, practicality and timeless style for every autumn day.

The Ragnall flannel shirt is warm, durable and comfortable.

You'll appreciate the Fargo waistcoat on an expedition or when fishing.

The Vagar rucksack offers plenty of space and pockets for all your essentials.

The Lincoln cargo trousers won't let you down, even in challenging conditions.

The Expedition boots are our legendary model, tried and tested by travellers.
